Dear Parents/Carers

Teacher Strike Days

There are two strike days next week, Wednesday 5th and Friday 7th July. Classes affected have been notified but school will be open as usual to the rest of the children.

Summer Fair - Friday 7th July, 3.15-5

We are looking forward to hosting this year's Summer Fair next week. There will be lots of stalls and fun to be had - it would be great to see as many of our families there as possible. The Summer Fair is a cash only event so please ensure you bring some change. Should your child's class be closed owing to strike action, you are still welcome to attend and we look forward to seeing you!

Bric-a-brac and book stall

At the Summer Fair, there will be a 'Table of Treasures' (traditional bric-a-brac) and a second-hand book stall. We are happily taking donations in order to resource either of these stalls so please bring anything you'd like to donate into school from Monday next week.

Transition Day

On Tuesday 11th July, everyone shuffles up and spends the day in new classes. This is an exciting day when pupils meet new teachers for the first time and spend the day in new class groups. To avoid any confusion please drop off and collect from current classroom doors. We will organise the transition internally. A great deal of thought, time and planning goes into the organisation of class groupings and many factors are taken into consideration. All teaching and pastoral staff have been involved in the decision-making and children have been asked about friendships. As you know, our admission limit is 45 and some pupils are taught in mixed age classes. Please note, decisions are final and not subject to change. A note will be sent home with your child's next class and teacher written on it. We will be around at the end of the day on Thursday should you wish to meet your child's next teacher.
